A Word Of Welcome From The President

I am happy to welcome Tulane alumni on this Homecoming Day. This is the first opportunity many of you have had for several years to renew affiliations with the University and with the friends of your college days. During the war years, Tulane celebrated "Alumni Day," but now once more we may have a "homecoming."

Hundreds of Tulanians left their peacetime occupations to serve their country. From many foreign lands and from many strange places their thoughts have turned toward the campus on Alumni Day during the past four years. Today they are home once more, and to them the University extends a special greeting.

To the University of Notre Dame, we also extend a cordial welcome.

(Signed)
RUFUS C. HARRIS.

* * *

Homecoming, 1945

Two themes mark Tulane university's 1945 celebration of Homecoming today.

The alumni committee has dedicated this observance to the more than 100 Tulanians who gave their lives that World War II might be brought to a successful conclusion. Thus, in a simple pre-game dedication ceremony, Clayton Nairne, chairman of the homecoming committee, will honor these Tulanians.

The lighter theme of the day is homecoming in the traditional peacetime fashion of Tulane. This marks the first time since 1941 that the university has been able to drop its cares long enough to really go all out in entertaining the alumni in the proper spirit.

The Notre Dame-Tulane contest is the feature of a variety of activities planned for this occasion. The celebration is complete, including the coronation between halves of the homecoming queen and her court, a pre-game drill of the Tulane naval unit and an after-game dance tonight for the student body.

In an impressive halftime show, outgoing President George Walne of the Tulane Alumni Association and the newly-elected executive will crown Miss Betty Pourceau as queen of homecoming. Lined up on the field will be the Tulane Naval Unit and down this aisle Miss Pourceau will lead her court of Miss Martha Witherspoon, Miss Betty Baueum, Miss Marion Byrne, Miss Connie Faust, Miss Catherine Burns and Miss Betty McIntosh, all of whom will be escorted by high ranking officers of the Tulane R.O.T.C. unit.

Second Meeting

The Blue and Gold clad Irish from the University of Notre Dame make their debut in the Deep South this afternoon, for the second game of the series with the Green Wave of Tulane.

Shrouded in football tradition, the Irish annually rank as one of the major gridiron powers in the Nation and this season is no exception. Only once has the Notre Dame armor been crushed and that time it took the mighty guns of the Cadets from West Point to turn the trick.

Other than that, the Irish hold six victories for the season, along with a tie against the other great military power, the Middies from the Banks of the Severn.

This will be the second meeting between the Wave and the Irish. Last year, Coach Claude "Monk" Simons took his protégés to South Bend, where they absorbed a 26-0 setback at the hands of an Ed McKeever mentored eleven. Today's game will be the first time a Hugh Devore coached crew has met the Wave.

PIGSKIN ROUNDUP

MISSISSIPPI vs. MISSISSIPPI STATE—A traditional battle for the "wreath of magnolias." With a wary eye on last year, it's still a Maroon victory for 1945.

* * *

UCLA vs. CALIFORNIA—One of a pair of second-run shows on the national grid scene, this one way out on the banks of the azure Pacific. Little chance of a reversal and so it's still the Bruins.

* * *

WASHINGTON vs. WASHINGTON STATE—The second repeat performance, this time deep in the heart of the big North Woods. But where-ever it is, Washington still rates the nod.

* * *

CORNELL vs. PENNSYLVANIA— Invasion from Ithaca but the nod goes to the Red and Blue.

* * *

PURDUE vs. INDIANA—And even after this toughie, the Hoosiers will remain the hotshots of the Big Ten this season.

* * *

WISCONSIN vs. MINNESOTA—Rebellion has reared its hideous head

In the ranks of the Golden Gophers,
And what once was feared 'mong mice and men
Is now but a bunch of "loafers".
—And so the Badgers.

TENNESSEE vs. KENTUCKY—There's no powerhouse emanating from Barney Barnhill's bungalow at Knoxville this year but what remains of last year's Rose Bowl representative should still be capable of throwing a kayo punch in this one.

* * *

CLEMSON vs. GEORGIA TECH—Instead of the Ramblin' Wreck, the Tigers will probably be calling it the Ramblin' Wreck-er.

* * *

LOUISIANA TECH vs. AUBURN—Some people's got it . . . Some people ain't got it . . . Kuy kendall's got it.

* * *

SOUTHERN METHODIST vs. BAYLOR—Fresh off the "war-casualty list", the Bears have done a commendable job. But here's where they meet that proverbial brick wall. The Mustangs.

The Tulane Community

TULANE UNIVERSITY is situated in New Orleans, a city of old and new world traditions and for more than two hundred years a cultural and charm spot of the western hemisphere.

Founded in 1834, Tulane has served the South and the Nation for more than a hundred years. The University, privately controlled, offers training in business administration, engineering, law, medicine, social work and graduate study in addition, of course, to the liberal arts. Newcomb College for Women is also an integral part of the University.

The University campus occupies an expanse of a hundred acres in the heart of a beautiful uptown residential section. The south end of the campus is adjacent to Audubon Park while the other boundaries of the campus parallel lovely boulevards and avenues.

The artistic, educational and social life of the University offers everything that is to be desired by the student. In addition to the professional libraries of the several colleges, the Howard-Tilton Memorial Library of the University is one of the South's finest. Completely modern and air-conditioned throughout, it houses approximately a half million volumes.

The Middle American Research Institute museum and the Tulane museum, both University museums, are a storehouse of many precious and rare pieces and collections. Its art galleries, with frequent special exhibits, attract many to the campus.

To lovers of music and the theatre, both the University program and that of metropolitan New Orleans are inspiring and satisfying. Tulane's famed A capella choir, its other choral groups and musical organizations and its theatre, rated among the top University theatres of the country, offer a varied season. This is augmented by the New Orleans

Symphony Orchestra which offers concerts at McAlister auditorium on the campus twice a month in addition to the usual Symphony and Philharmonic seasons downtown.

From an athletic and sports viewpoint, Tulane and New Orleans offer a wide choice. Tulane's intercollegiate athletic program has long been of the best. In addition, the annual Sugar Bowl football game is played in the Tulane stadium each New Year's Day. Tennis and golf are year round sports and the University's facilities coupled with those of nearby Audubon Park are excellent. Fishing, swimming, sailing and hunting in season are other popular pastimes.

No review of Tulane's advantages would be complete without mentioning the opportunity of its students to enjoy New Orleans, the city of the Mardi Gras, with its quaint French Quarter, its excellent restaurants, its interesting architecture, and yet withal its paradoxical alertness in commerce.

NEW ORLEANS Public Service

Today's homecoming celebration is dedicated to Tulanians who served in World War II. Typical of the honors received by these men for outstanding service is this plaque, presented by the Fifth Army to the 24th General Hospital Unit, sponsored by Tulane. Here, Colonel Walter C. Royals, commander, presents it to President Harris and Dean Hiram W. Kostmayer of the school of medicine.

Clayton L. Nairne, (seated, center) is chairman of the homecoming committee this year. Members of his committee include (standing, left to right) Gerald Andrus, Stanley S. Morris, Clifford F. Favrot, Harry S. Cabral, Pat Richardson, A. Watson Chapman and Dr. Oliver Deich-

Tulane Songs

ALMA MATER

We praise thee for thy past, O Alma Mater!
Thy hand hath done its work full faithfully!
The incense of thy spirit hath ascended
And filled America from sea to sea!

We praise thee for thy present, Alma Mater!
Today thy children look to thee for bread!
Thou leadest them to dreams and actions splendid!
The hunger of their souls is richly fed!

We praise thee for thy future, Alma Mater!
The vista of its glory gleameth far!
We shall ever be part of thee, great Mother!
There thou wilt be where e'er thy children are!

Chorus

Olive Green and Blue, we love thee.
Pledge we now our fealty true.
Where the trees are ever greenest,
Where the skies are purest blue.
Hear us now, O Tulane, hear us.
As we proudly sing to thee!
Take from us our hearts' devotion!
Thine we are, and thine shall be!

ROLL ON, TULANE

Here's a song for the Olive and the Blue.
Here's a cheer for the team that's tried and true.
Here's a pledge of loyalty to thee,
Oh, Tulane Varsity.
Here's to the Greenbacks that never will say die,
And here's to the hearts that are true.
To the men of Tulane, who are fighting for her name,
For the Olive and the Blue.

Chorus

Roll, Green Wave,
Roll them down the field.
Hold, Green Wave,
That line must never yield.
When those Greenbacks charge through the line
They're bound for victory.
Hail, Green Wave,
For you we give a cheer.
Hail Green Wave,
For you we have no fear.
So ev'ry man in ev'ry play,
And then we'll win that game today.
Hurrah for Old Tulane!

* * *

TULANE FIGHT SONG

Green Wave, Green Wave
Hats off to thee,
Fight, fight, fight for our victory.
Shout to the skies
The Green Wave war cry.
The bravest we'll defy
Hold that line for Olive and Blue
We will cheer for you.
So fight, fight, Old Green Wave
Right on to victory.

Notre Dame Songs

NOTRE DAME, OUR MOTHER

Notre Dame, our Mother,
Tender, strong and true.
Proudly in the heavens,
Gleams the gold and blue,
Glory's mantle cloaks thee,
Golden is thy fame,
And our hearts forever,
Praise thee, Notre Dame.
And our hearts forever,
Love thee, Notre Dame.

* * *

VICTORY MARCH

Rally sons of Notre Dame;
Sing her glory and sound her fame,
Raise her Gold and Blue
And cheer with voices true:
Rah, rah, for Notre Dame (U rah, rah)
We will fight in ev'-ry game,
Strong of heart and true to her name
We will ne'er forget her
And we'll cheer her ever
Loyal to Notre Dame.

Chorus

Cheer, cheer for old Notre Dame.
Wake up the echoes cheering her name,
Send a volley cheer on high,
Shake down the thunder from the sky.
What though the odds be great or small?
Old Notre Dame will win over all,
While her loyal sons are marching
Onward to victory.

WHEN IRISH BACKS GO MARCHING BY

Rah! Rah! Rah!
Up! Notre Dame men! Answer the cry,
Gathering foemen fling to the sky.
Fight! Fight! Fight!
Brave hosts advancing challenge your name,
March to the battle, Notre Dame!
Rah! Rah! Rah!

Chorus

And when the Irish backs go marching by
The cheering thousands shout their battle cry:
For Notre Dame men are marching into the game,
Fighting the fight for you, Notre Dame,
And when that Irish line goes smashing through,
They'll sweep the foremen's ranks away;
When Notre Dame men fight for Gold and Blue,
Then Notre Dame men will win that day.

* * *

DOWN THE LINE

On down the line! beside the glory of her name,
On down the line! beneath the colors of an ancient fame,
On down the line! another day for her proclaim;
Old Gold and Blue—you're going through!
Go down the line for Notre Dame!

* * *

HIKE SONG

The march is on, no brain or brawn
Can stop the charge of fighting men.
Loud rings the cry of grim defy
Of hard attack let loose again.
Oh, it's the hike, hike of victory,
The call, to rise and strike.
For Notre Dame men are winning
When Notre Dame hears hike, hike, hike.
Hark to the cheering song rising high,
Hark to the roar as the ranks go marching by;
Shoulder to shoulder chanting her glorious name.
Burn high your fires and swing along for Notre Dame.
